When I wake up I don't get up immediately. I turn on the television and watch the children's programmes and old movies until about half-past ten. Then I get up, go downstairs and switch on the TV. For lunch, I have biscuits and a glass of milk, and I watch the news. In the afternoon, I often watch another old film – they're showing some good ones at the moment. In the evenings, I often watch serials or sport and the news again. I like the main news at six o'clock. At 9.30, if there is a good play on BBC, I switch over and watch it. Then at night I watch more films and I usually switch off the TV at about ten o'clock. I never watch the TV all night.
